

semDial 2013 – DialDam

The 17th Workshop on the Semantics and Pragmatics of Dialogue

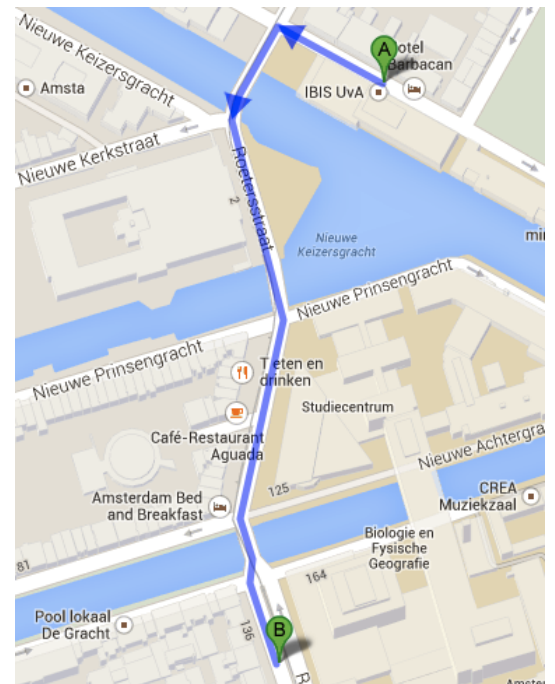

Social Programme

Welcome Drinks, Monday 16 December

On Monday after the last talk of the workshop we will walk together (5 min) to Kriterion, a café/bar which is also the foyer of a film theatre with a long history. During the nazi occupation in World War II, the building was used to hide around a thousand Jewish children. In 1945 it was converted into a cinema and since the 1960's it has been run by an independent and non-hierarchical association of students that aims to promote creative output.
